HOW to LOVE

Dear Dorris,

Is it wrong to feel like you have to love someone when they buy you things?

- Lillie Ann Fitzsim

because they are already satisfied.

Love can be stimulated by kindness

When we give someone a gift hello

A kind gesture should be a product of Love

not a means to obtain it.

We get something in return:

and we feel good because they feel good.

If someone really cares for you, they will not expect anything in return

They feel good

but love is unruly
